LDF PENS LETTER URGING INVESTIGATION OF PRISON CONDITIONS IN BEAUMONT, TEXAS FOLLOWING HURRICANE HARVEY

Today, the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) sent a letter to U.S. Attorney General Jefferson Sessions and Dr. Thomas Kane, Acting Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, concerning disturbing reports about dangerous and degrading conditions at the Federal Correction Complex (FCC) in Beaumont, Texas, in its response to Hurricane Harvey.

Accounts reveal that Hurricane Harvey led to extreme flooding within the Beaumont prison, causing water levels to rise above the ankles and restricting, and possibly contaminating, the prison's water supply. Yet, despite this extreme flooding, the FCC in Beaumont decided against evacuation. Reports further describe lack of adequate drinking water, medical care, and air conditioning; lack of access to showers and clean and functioning toilets; retaliation against prisoners who communicated their experiences during this time; and FCC's refusing media requests to visit the facility to report on conditions.

If accounts are accurate, these actions and conditions constitute a clear violation of the Beaumont prisoners' constitutional rights under the First, Fifth, and Eighth Amendments. LDF urges the Department of Justice and Bureau of Prisons to conduct a "full and independent investigation of all allegations of mistreatment and unconstitutional conduct in the Beaumont prison during and in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey," and to remedy the situation immediately if such egregious and inhumane treatment is ongoing.
