

New York Communities for Change (NYCC) Quote

“A single, flawed test should not determine the enrollment of our City's Specialized High Schools, especially when that test has resulted in an overwhelming disproportionate representation of black and Latino students in those schools.”

Jonathan Westin, Organizing Director at New York Communities for Change