KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

UNDER FEDERAL LAW YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO:

- ✓ vote free from intimidation.
- ✓ vote if you are in line by the time polls close.
- ✓ vote a provisional ballot if there is uncertainty regarding your registration status or eligibility.
- ✓ receive assistance when voting if you are unable to vote unaided due to blindness, disability, illiteracy, or inability to read English; and you have a right to choose who assists you, so long as they are not your employer or union representative.

UNDER SOUTH CAROLINA LAW YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO:

- ✓ vote from your vehicle (curbside voting) if you are over 65 years old or have a disability that prevents you from standing in line.
- ✓ vote after serving a felony conviction if you have served your entire sentence, including probation or parole, and have re-registered with your local county board of registration and elections.

When voting in-person on Election Day, you will be asked to present one of the following forms of ID:

- SC Driver's License
- SC Department of Motor Vehicles ID Card
- Federal Military ID
- US Passport
- SC Voter Registration Card w/ Photo

Forgot your ID? You can cast a provisional ballot if you forgot your ID. However, for your vote to count, you must provide one of the accepted photo IDs to the county election office in person prior to the certification of the election.

Don't have an ID? You can vote in person by provisional ballot without a photo ID if you have an accepted reason. South Carolina's photo ID law contains a "reasonable impediment" exception that recognizes many reasons why you may not have a photo ID, such as:

- you are disabled or ill;
- you have a conflict with your work schedule;
- you have family responsibilities;
- you do not have a copy of your birth certificate;
- you lack transportation or money to get to the county election office or DMV;
- you have a religious objection to being photographed; or
- there is another obstacle that YOU find reasonable.

If you qualify to vote without a photo ID due to a "reasonable impediment," follow these steps:

1. Inform the poll managers that you do not have a photo ID and could not get one;
2. Present your current, non-photo voter registration card;
3. Sign an affidavit identifying yourself and your reason for not having an accepted photo ID; and
4. Cast a provisional ballot. The provisional ballot that you cast is presumed valid and will be counted unless the county election office has reason to believe that your affidavit is false.
